PURCHASER agrees that it shall not make any representations, covenant or warranty, whether oral or written, which may be inconsistent with the terms and conditions of the Ticket. It is understood and agreed that the Ticket shall be valid only for the person named on the form thereof for whom it is issued and cannot be transferred without Carnival's written consent. This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without giving effect to choice of law principles. Exclusive jurisdiction for litigation of any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or the breach thereof shall be brought only in the Federal or State court with competent jurisdiction located in Miami-Dade County, Florida. In the event any provisions contained in this Agreement is for any reason held to be unenforceable in any respect, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions of this Agreement, and the Agreement shall be then construed as if such an unenforceable provision or provisions had never been included in this Agreement. Neither party may assign this Agreement without the express written consent of the other party. In the event any action be instituted by a party to enforce any of the terms and provisions contained herein, the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to such reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses as may be fixed by the court. This Agreement contains the entire Agreement of the parties and it may not be changed orally, nor may it be waived, modified, enlarged, or varied in any manner, nor may it be abrogated or discharged, except by a written instrument signed by the party to be charged therewith. Marketing and Group Rates: Carnival reserves the right to deny or cancel any group bookings or charters that maybe disruptive to the cruise experience for other guests on the ship or whose activities, message or marketing is inconsistent with the family-friendly experience. It is important to our company that we protect our brand in booking, marketing and in the use of public spaces on board our ships for property sanctioned activities that are consistent with the image Carnival has chosen to portray. Guiding principles for marketing the Carnival brand in print, media, interactive and/or press releases as well as booking a Carnival cruise are: the marketing, message and activities of the group should promote a positive brand image; marketing, message and activities should not promote behavior that is inappropriate or detrimental such as excessive drinking, rowdiness, lewdness or any illegal activities. Marketing, including but not limited to print, media, interactive, web and press releases that uses Carnival's name, ship names, logos or other trademarks must comply with the guidelines contained in Carnival's Travel Agency Policy found on www.GoCCL.com. Similarly, group activities, and messages must be consistent with the Carnival image. Based thereon, marketing, activities and the group's message – that we, in our sole discretion deem unacceptable may result in denial of booking, cancellation of the group or charter, cancellation of unsold cabins or discontinuation of further sales. Carnival's cancellation policy shall be applicable to any cancelled bookings. Carnival will also not be liable for any costs or losses, including marketing costs or commissions for agent/promoter, as a result of the cancellation, denial of booking, discontinuance of improper marketing or other action taken under this policy. Carnival is further not responsible for any damages, including consequential damages that may result from the discontinuation of marketing of a cruise or cancellation or cut off of sales of a particular group booking or charter, Group pricing for individual tickets is responsibility of the group organizer, Tickets will not display pricing but rather will state "AS AGREED". It is the group organizer's responsibility to appropriately price and fully communicate the pricing to the group's members. Group rates may not be displayed on the internet, in newspapers, on radio, or TV. Group rates may be displayed through direct mail, targeted Email, or flyers. Group departures and rates may be marketed on a specific organization's private website or through on organization's newsletter, Radio and TV maybe used only to market to specific interest groups or to market theme sailings.

Reviews: The Sailing Support Department may contact the travel agency as needed to review the group's progress. Your cooperation is requested in providing a timely response. If your group is booked on our Fly-Aweigh program we must be advised of the number of air seats required from each departure city. Carnival reserves the right to recall all or part of a group's unsold space. On occasion, fully deposited space without names is also subject to recall.

Guest Changes: Name changes or additions are allowed at Carnival Cruise Lines' discretion. Name changes are subject to cancellation charges and any rate increases. There will be a service fee for any correction involving names, and for any changes to departure cities on Fly-Aweigh guests, and/or for any changes made on pre or post cruise packages within 60 days of sailing. For such late changes, supplement charges may also apply.

Amenity Points: Flexi-pricing is contingent on the group finalizing with a minimum of 5 qualifying staterooms. If group minimum is not met the rates will be adjusted accordingly.

Alternatively, Your Time Dining allows you to dine at your leisure in the Main Dining room anytime between 5.45 PM and 9.30 PM. Guests are seated on a first come, first served depending on party size. Pagers are provided if all tables are occupied so they may relax elsewhere on the ship until their table is ready.
